The Humanities Center at Harvard presents

In Pursuit of Invisible Forces: Servants in History and Today

Friday
May 15, 2009
Kates Room (Rm. 201)
Warren House
12 Quincy Street
Open to the public
Seating is limited

Program

10:00am: Markus Krajewski, Humanities Center at Harvard
Introduction

10:30am: Markus Stock, University of Toronto, Canada
The Good Messenger: Letter, Oral Word, and (In)Difference

11:45am: Raffaella Sarti, University of Urbino, Italy
Servants Between Invisibility and Visibility

2:00pm: Walter Johnson, History Department, Harvard
The Carceral Landscape: Birds, Horses, Dogs, Forests, Fields, and Swamps

3:15pm: Thomas Brandstaetter, University of Vienna, Austria
The Lives of Mechanical Servants

4:30pm: Wendy Chun, Brown University, Providence
Yes, Sir!, or How Operators Became Programmers