

The Environment Forum
at the Mahindra Center

Tiya Miles is the Mary Henrietta Graham Distinguished University
Professor, University of Michigan; Author of Tales from the Haunted South: Dark Tourism and Memories of Slavery from the Civil War Era (2015); and Founder of ECO Girls, an environmental and cultural project for girls in urban Southeast Michigan.

Convened by Robin Kelsey,
Dean of Arts and Humanities, Harvard University and Ian Jared Miller, Professor of History, Harvard University.

Free and open to the public.
Seating is limited.
mahindrahumanities.fas.harvard.edu

TIYA MILES

“I’ve Known Rivers”: Slave Resistance and Environmental Consciousness

Wednesday, May 3, 2017 | 6 pm | Tsai Auditorium S010, CGIS South, 1730 Cambridge Street