The Humanities Center at Harvard presents

Maintaining Peace and Interstate Stability in the Greek World

09:00 Welcome
09:10 Kurt Raaff (Brown)
Greek Concepts and Theories of Peace in a Mediterranean Perspective
09:55 David Elmer (Harvard)
The Treaty in Iliad 3 / 4
10.40 Coffee break

11.00 Natasha Bershadsky (University of Chicago)
War or Peace: Stories of Conflicts over Cynuria and the Lelantine Plain

11:45 Sarah Bolmarcich (University of Minnesota - Twin Cities)
The Art of Negotiation in the Peloponnesian War Period
12.30 Lunch break

14.00 Peter Hunt (University of Colorado, Boulder/Harvard)
Legalism and Peace in Classical Greece

14:45 Julia Wilker (Freie Universität Berlin/Humanities Center Fellow)
War and Peace at the Beginning of the Fourth Century
15.30 Coffee break

15:50 Polly Low (University of Manchester)
Greek Reply to the Satraps' Revolt

16:35 Maria Brosius (Newcastle University)
Persian Diplomacy between 'Pax Persica' and 'O-Tolerance'

*Please register in advance with symposium organizer, Julia Wilker: wilker@fas.harvard.edu

Saturday
May 9, 2009
Barker Center 133
12 Quincy Street

*Open to the public
*Seating is limited